Re: Complaint Regarding Violation of Federal Election Campaign Act

Dear Counsel:

This letter serves as our formal complaint against the local ballot measure committee, Beverly Hills Residents and Businesses to Preserve Our City No on HH, California Secretary of State ID No. 1388394 ("Committee"), and its donors. The Committee appears to have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act (FECA), as amended, by accepting a contribution from a foreign principal, The Wanda Group, a Chinese company that is prohibited from making contributions in California elections.

The ban on foreign contributions is one of, if not the most important, aspects of federal campaign finance law. Preserving the integrity of the American electoral process is vital to the functioning of our democracy at the federal, state and local levels. Foreign contributions threaten to undermine the integrity of our elections.

The facts in this complaint will detail the prohibited contributions made by the Wanda Group, a company based in China, to the Committee. It will also detail the actions of the Committee and its principals in knowingly providing substantial assistance in the receipt of the foreign contributions.

FACTS

The Wanda Group is one of the largest companies not only in China, but in the entire world. According to its website, it is the world's largest property company and the world's largest cinema company, among many other holdings. It is a Global Fortune 500 company.¹ The Wanda Group's Chairman is Wang Jianlin. He is a billionaire, and ranked by Bloomberg as one of the "50 most influential people in the world."²

The Wanda Group has subsidiaries and projects around the globe. Two of these projects are located in Chicago and Beverly Hills. The Chicago project is called Wanda Tower Chicago US.

The project involves what will be the third tallest building in Chicago, and will cost an estimated $900 million to build.³

The Beverly Hills Project is known as "One Beverly Hills." It is located on Wilshire Boulevard in a prime location, adjacent to the Beverly Hilton Hotel and a short walk from Rodeo Drive.⁴ The estimated cost of this project is $1.2 billion. The Wanda Group purchased the site in 2014. It changed the original design for the project approved by the City of Beverly Hills by adding a hotel and increasing the overall size.⁵

The adjacent Hilton Hotel is also looking to expand its project, which has caused some controversy in the community and on the Beverly Hills City Council. The current Mayor, in particular, has weighed-in in favor of the Wanda project and opposed the Hilton project.⁶ A measure regarding the Hilton project has been placed on the November 2016 Beverly Hills ballot (Measure HH). The effort to place this measure on the ballot has been contentious, with the City already suffering one defeat in federal court in a matter involving restrictions on initiative campaign advertising disclosure related to the Measure, and a second defeat in Superior Court relating to its ballot measure wording.⁷

A ballot measure campaign committee was recently formed to oppose Measure HH. The committee is named Beverly Hills Residents and Businesses to Preserve Our City, an Exploratory Committee Sponsored by Wanda Beverly Hills Properties, LLC and Athens BH Development, LLC with Major Funding from Lakeshore East Parcel P, LLC. (See Exhibit A). The Committee was assigned ID Number is 1388394 by the California Secretary of State.

Wanda Beverly Hills LLC is a subsidiary of The Wanda Group and its subsidiary, Wanda Los Angeles Properties Co., LTD. (See Exhibit B). Wanda Beverly Hills LLC is the company that is developing One Beverly Hills. However, it would appear that the project is being directed by The Wanda Group and Wang Jianlin, who have well documented views about this project serving as a major step in their foray into the entertainment industry.⁸ Wanda Beverly Hills is listed as a sponsor of the Committee.

Wanda Los Angeles Properties Co., LTD, is run by Benxi Ding. (See Exhibit C.) Mr. Ding concurrently serves as the Chairman of Dalian Wanda Commercial Properties, a China-based corporation.⁹ Mr. Ding is a Chinese national.

The General Manager of Wanda Beverly Hills Properties LLC is Xiang Shu, aka David Shu. He is also a Chinese national who arrived in the country in 2015.

Rohan a'Beckett is the Deputy General Manager of Wanda Beverly Hills Properties LLC. Rohan a'Beckett is a native of Australia; and is a Principal Officer of the Committee. Beckett originally worked for The Wanda Group as Deputy General Manager of Investments & Securities in January 2013 in New York, when the group was scoping properties for a New York hotel-condominium complex. In the New York office – Wanda's first overseas office – Beckett was charged with real estate and corporate acquisitions in the United States.

Athens BH Development is an Arizona-based company that develops hotels across the country. They are part of the development team, along with The Wanda Group and Wanda Beverly Hills LLC.¹⁰ Athens is also listed as a sponsor of the Committee.

Lakeshore East Parcel P, LLC is an Illinois-based company founded in 2013.¹¹ Lakeshore East is the development area in Chicago in which The Wanda Group is developing the Wanda Vista Chicago (Wanda Tower Chicago).¹² Lakeshore East Parcel P, LLC, is listed as a major funder of the Committee. According to information available through public records, Lakeshore East Parcel P, LLC has not made any political contributions other than to the Committee.

All of the corporate managers of Lakeshore East Parcel P, LLC are also managers of Magellan.¹³ Magellan is an Illinois-based company that developed Lakeshore East in partnership with The Wanda Group.¹⁴ According to the Magellan website, all of their projects are located in Chicago.

Magellan has made over 65 political campaign contributions since 2011. Aside from contributions to candidates for President of the United States, all their contributions have been made to candidates running for office in the City of Chicago. (see Exhibit D) Of the four "managers" and principals that overlap between Magellan and Lakeshore East (Joel Carlins, James Lowendberg, David Carlins and Robin Berger), each has made numerous contributions, but all were either to Presidential candidates or to candidates or committees in Illinois. (see Exhibit D)

Foreign Contributions

The Committee has not yet filed any campaign finance reports, but is due to file a pre-election report on or before Thursday, September 29. Nonetheless, in its organizational papers filed under state law, the Committee indicated that it qualified as a committee on August 8, 2016 (meaning that it had received at least $2,000 in contributions), and identified Lakeshore East as a major funder in its Statement of Organization. Under California law, that means that Lakeshore East must have contributed $50,000 or more to the Committee in order to be named as a "major funder" in the Committee's name.

Based on the foregoing facts, it appears that the initial contribution by Lakeshore East to the Committee is a foreign contribution. Lakeshore East has no other known ties to the ballot measure effort in Beverly Hills other than its connection to The Wanda Group in the Chicago development project. Thus, there is simply no plausible way this contribution could have been made without the participation of The Wanda Group, a foreign corporation.

Consider the following facts:

- Lakeshore East, which has never made a contribution outside of Illinois, contributed to a committee to oppose a local land use ballot measure in Beverly Hills, California.
- The only known connection between Lakeshore East and Wanda Beverly Hills is The Wanda Group's partnership with Magellan on the Chicago development project.
- The corporate managers of Lakeshore East all work for Magellan, another Illinois company that has never contributed outside of Illinois, but which partnered with The Wanda Group on one of the biggest development projects in the history of Chicago.
- The Mayor of Chicago announced publicly his support of the Wanda/Magellan Development. Wang Jianlin was quoted directly in the Mayor's press release, as was a representative of Magellan.¹⁵
- Wang Jianlin was personally involved in a third major United States development project in New York City.¹⁶ A current investigation in the City of New York related to lobbying contacts between Wang Jianlin, his lobbyist and the Mayor has been publicly discussed.
- Magellan contributed significantly to the campaign account of the Mayor of Chicago (over $60,000) and the CEO of Magellan, Joel Carlins, hosted a fundraiser for the Mayor¹⁷ at his home. Joel Carlins is one of the Magellan managers who are also a principal at Lakeshore East.

- The Chicago Mayor met with Wanda Chairman Wang Jianlin directly when he visited China.¹⁸
- The Chicago Mayor publicly announced his support for the Wanda Vista project before it came before the City Council.¹⁹
- Similarly, the Mayor of Beverly Hills has publicly announced both his support for the Wanda Beverly Hills project before it comes before the City Council, and his opposition to the Hilton project by opposing Measure HH.²⁰
- The Mayor of Beverly Hills has also met directly with Wang Jianlin. Mr. Jianlin promised to pay close attention to the investment opportunities in Beverly Hills and made a donation to the Beverly Hills Public Infrastructure Improvement Fund. The Beverly Hills Mayor promised to fully support the Wanda Group's development in the City.²¹
- Lakeshore East was disclosed as a major funder in the Committee's initial Statement of Organization, meaning that it must have contributed $50,000 or more to the Committee.
- The Chairman of Wanda Los Angeles Properties co. LTD, Benxi Ding, also simultaneously holds a senior executive position in The Wanda Group, its parent company in China.

ANALYSIS

Section 441e of the FECA prohibits foreign nationals from making contributions, directly or indirectly, in federal, state and local elections. Section 441e provides:

(a) Prohibition

It shall be unlawful for -

(1) a foreign national, directly or indirectly, to make -

(A) a contribution or donation of money or other thing of value, or to make an express or implied promise to make a contribution or donation, in connection with a Federal, State, or local election;

(B) a contribution or donation to a committee of a political party; or

(C) an expenditure, independent expenditure, or disbursement for an electioneering communication (within the meaning of section 434(f)(3) of this title); or

(2) a person to solicit, accept, or receive a contribution or donation described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) from a foreign national.

(b) "Foreign national" defined

As used in this section, the term "foreign national" means -

(1) a foreign principal, as such term is defined by section 611(b) of title 22, except that the term "foreign national" shall not include any individual who is a citizen of the United States; or

(2) an individual who is not a citizen of the United States or a national of the United States (as defined in section 1101(a)(22) of title 8) and who is not lawfully admitted for permanent residence, as defined by section 1101(a)(20) of title 8.

(2 U.S.C. § 441e.)

Moreover, according to 11 CFR 110.20(i):

A foreign national shall not direct, dictate, control, or directly or indirectly participate in the decision-making process of any person, such as a corporation, labor organization, political committee, or political organization with regard to such person's Federal or non-Federal election-related activities, such as decisions concerning the making of contributions, donations, expenditures, or disbursements in connection with elections for any Federal, State, or local office or decisions concerning the administration of a political committee.

The facts in this complaint detail the persistent, detailed involvement of the parent Chinese company in every aspect of three of its largest global projects. Its CEO, Wang Jianlin, personally met with the Mayors of each City. He publicly stated he would do everything he could personally to see the Beverly Hills project succeed. He personally made a contribution to the Beverly Hills civic improvement fund at the request of the Mayor. He was personally quoted in the press release announcing the building of the Chicago project. His company is quoted extensively in the media describing how important both projects are to the company. In particular, the Beverly Hills project was viewed as the Wanda Group's further ticket into the entertainment industry.

In short, the One Beverly Hills project is a signature project for the Wanda Group and, from the CEO on down there has been a large personal interest taken in the project. This mirrors the personal attention paid by the Chinese parent company to its other two big projects in New York and Chicago. And two of the company's key operatives in California, Benxi Ding and Rohan a'Beckett, both either currently work for The Wanda Group or worked there very recently.

Mr. Ding currently serves as the Chairman of the Wanda Group's global commercial properties division. There appears to be little chance that funding a very public, high profile opposition campaign against a neighboring project would have been done without some participation or direction from the parent corporation, given the level of attention and interest that has been documented by the Wanda Group and its Chairman in this and the other two projects in New York and Chicago.

It also defies logic that the Magellan/Lakewood companies would make the largest single contribution in their history, over $50,000, in opposition to a local ballot measure in Beverly Hills, California, where they had no interest whatsoever, without the involvement of the Wanda Group. They had never even made a contribution outside of Illinois prior to that. Their only tie to this Committee is through the parent company, the Wanda Group.

Under California law there are four circumstances under which a company can be listed as the sponsor of a committee. They either must: contribute 80 percent or more of the committee's money; collect money for the committee using payroll deductions or dues; provide all or nearly all of the administrative services for the committee; or set the policies for soliciting or spending committee funds. (Cal. Govt. Code §82048.7.) By being listed as a sponsor of the Committee, Wanda Beverly Hills admits they did at least one of these things. Given their close ties with The Wanda Group, this is further potential evidence that China-based Wanda Group directed or participated in the contribution from Lakeshore East being made to the Committee.

If The Wanda Group participated in the decision to have Lakeshore East make a contribution to the Committee, The Wanda Group is directly or indirectly funding the Committee through Lakeshore East. Thus, The Wanda Group would be in violation of the prohibitions contained in Section 441e.

Finally, according to 11 CFR 110.20(h):

- (1) No person shall knowingly provide substantial assistance in the solicitation, making, acceptance, or receipt of a contribution or donation prohibited [by this section] [and]
- (2) No person shall knowingly provide substantial assistance in the making of an expenditure, independent expenditure, or disbursement prohibited [by this section]

September 22, 2016

In the present case, the Committee, its sponsors and its Principal Officers have knowingly provided substantial assistance in the solicitation, making, acceptance, or receipt of prohibited contributions, expenditures or disbursements by The Wanda Group. Moreover, the Committee knowingly assisted the Wanda Group with soliciting, accepting or receiving contributions prohibited under FECA. Thus, the Committee and its officers have violated Section 441 as well.

SUMMARY

We hereby seek a full and immediate investigation into the above violations of the FECA and Commission regulations by The Wanda Group and the Committee. Immediate action is necessary to protect the integrity of the November 6, City of Beverly Hills election, and to prevent further violations of the FECA and Commission regulations by these foreign principals.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas Walsh
